

Mitchell Manor

Housing Authority, City of Kennewick

When the City of Kennewick Housing Authority needed to address the shortage of accessible affordable housing in their community, they were referred to Common Ground. This small project was designed to meet the specific needs of disabled residents. Each of the units provides space for medical equipment and a caregiver or additional family members. All the units are 100% ADA accessible.

- 6 units of permanent housing for low income individuals with physical disabilities
- New construction
- $800,000 total development cost
- Major funding: Banner Bank, Benton Affordable Housing Association, FHLB of Cincinnati, Impact Capital, Kennewick Housing Authority, Key Bank, Tri-Cities HOME Consortium, WA State HTF
- Designed by Zeck-Butler Architects
- Built by Ashley-Bertsch Group, Inc.
- Opened in 2005